

STMA Participates in Fourth Annual Museum Day

Museum Day, this year scheduled for Saturday, September 27th, offers a unique opportunity to celebrate our nation's cultural offerings and institutions.

On that day, the Steffen Thomas Museum of Art joined museums throughout the country in offering visitors free admission. In addition, all who submitted forms for new or renewed STMA membership and indicated they wish to participate in our special draw had the chance to win a framed print of Steffen Thomas's Dancers (see above), a study done in 1947 for a mural meant for the New Orleans' St. Charles Hotel, which no longer exists.

This image also appears on the back of the free "Tip Card Guide" included in an informational packet inviting community members to join or renew their membership in Friends of STMA.

The Steffen Thomas Museum of Art, 4200 Bethany Road in Buckhead, is open Tuesday through Saturday, 11 AM to 4 PM. For more information and directions, please call 706-342-7557 or visit HYPERLINK "http://www.steffenthomas.org" www.steffenthomas.org.

Dancers by Steffen Thomas. Circa 1947. ©S.T.A.R., L.P. of GA